

Vintage Cocktails

Some of our vintage spirits put to good use in some of your favourite historic drinks

Rusty Nail 35

1960's Drambuie & 1960's Johnnie Walker Red Label

Thought to originate at the British Industries Fair in 1937 but reached its peak of popularity in the 1960's as the go-to cocktail of The Rat Pack

Japanese Old Fashioned 30

Suntory Old 1975 Ocean Expo. Edition, home-made Japanese bitters, demerara sugar

With the first Japanese malt whisky distillery constructed in 1923 (Yamazaki), Suntory recently celebrated 100 years of Japanese whisky production

Sazerac 27

1980's Remy Martin V.S.O.P. Champagne Cognac, Rittenhouse Rye, absinthe, bitters

Invented by the apothecary Antoine Peychaud at his shop in New Orleans in 1838

Rob Roy 32

1990's Johnnie Walker Blue Label, home-made sweet vermouth, orange bitters

Created by New York's Waldorf Astoria Hotel in 1894 to celebrate the opening of the Broadway show "Rob Roy"

Cosmo 25

1980's Stanislaw Vodka, home-made orange curacao, lime, cranberry

Widely perceived to be a more modern creation, there is a recipe for a "cosmopolitan daisy" which appears in "Pioneers of mixing in elite bars" published in 1934
